

GIANOI

PREMIUM WIRELESS CHARGING

About us

---

Inspired by Janus (Giano), the ancient Roman god of transitions with two faces, presiding over the past and future, GIANOI is rooted in rich Italian heritage.

By combining timeless Italian artisanship with advanced technology, our brand is the living embodiment of Giano's divine mythos.

What we do

In the era where a phone is no longer a phone and the internet connects us to anything...

GIANOI creates the fashion accessories of tomorrow, integrating essential technology for the contemporary lifestyle.

Why we do it: Wireless Power is coming of age

Apple's introduction of new iPhones with wireless charging in 2017 is driving fast adoption and technology integration with other leading brands (e.g. IKEA, Starbucks, BMW).

2.1 Billion wireless charger transmitters and receivers will be shipped in 2023.

Since 2014 we pioneered luxury handbags that charge your phone & recharge wirelessly. That's why we have developed a premium wireless charging range.

Our premium wireless chargers

Carved from a solid block of aircraft grade A aluminium and topped with premium and exotics Italian leathers.

Charging made easy and stylish

---

Choose the handcrafted cover that fits your style or décor.

Suit your surroundings as the mood takes you.

Our collection

A stylish addition to your home or work-space.

Meticulously crafted in Italy we created a charger you will not want to hide away.

Customer Benefits

- Wireless charging is a new way to charge your smartphone, eliminates the need for cables.
- Customers can enjoy a seamless and convenient charging experience.
- Our chargers support every smartphone that is wireless charging compatible (Qi), starting from the iPhone 8 and higher to Samsung, Huawei and most Android phones.
- With its unique appeal & luxury packaging it can become the perfect gift for today's generation.

Our Story

Gianoï was founded by brothers Enrico and Raffaele Caroli.

From their childhood in Southern Italy, the Caroli boys were taught the art of design and a passion for true artisanship by their father, who began training as a master leather maker in 1963.

While Enrico forged a high-profile career within the global technology industry, Raffaele developed his creative vision working as Design Director for Jean's Paul Gaultier and in senior design & management positions at John Richmond and Alexander McQueen.

Their combined international success led the brothers to eventually fuse their expertise with a desire to explore the unfamiliar, creating a new, exciting and revolutionary brand.

Why choose Gianoï

- Brand specialized in Fashion & Technology integration since 2014
- Pioneers in the use of Wireless Charging solutions
- Launching soon our range as an in-room feature with Luxury Hotel Chains
