BRAND INTRODUCTION

Established in 1986, ERIBÉ is an award-winning knitwear design house and micro-manufacturer based in the Scottish Borders, UK. We are a 'cottage industry gone global', and have an avid fan-base around the world. You can find our collections at 300-plus prestigious stores in 16 countries worldwide.

Scottish - and proud to be so!

Inspired by this land. Its colours, its rugged hills and spectacular glens, we create design-led contemporary knitwear that is rooted in Scottish heritage tradition. We love to mix patterns, colours and yarns together in an innovative way to create quality knitwear that is made to last and is a joy to wear.

Craftsmanship

ERIBÉ knitwear is made using hereditary skills handed down from one generation to the next. We know what we're doing - our roots are in tradition and textile knowledge. We value experience and nurture new talent.

Ethical

We are mindful of the environment, use the best ecological yarns where possible and work only with trusted partners. Through the ERIBÉ brand, we promote creativity and sustainable fashion with ethical production.

Made in Scotland

We are proud to introduce ERIBÉ's "Woolly Towers" - our new purpose built knitwear factory - round the corner in Tweedbank - equipped with new machines to increase production and support design development. This facility gives us control of production schedules to ensure we can respond quickly to customer requests.
