Second edition of the CFMI Academy:
the practical training for Fashion Design students organized by CFMI, Pitti Immagine, and UniCredit continues.

The first cycle of seminars on sustainable fashion creation, which started in January, concludes at Pitti Immagine Filati 95.

The educational project on industrial culture and sustainability in fashion for Fashion Design students continues. It is a collaboration between Centro di Firenze per la Moda Italiana (CFMI), Pitti Immagine, and UniCredit, with the support of Piattaforma Sistema Formativo Moda and Polimoda.

The first cycle of seminars initiated in the January 2024 edition of the salon will conclude on June 27, from 10 AM to 1 PM, at the UniCredit Filati Arena in Fortezza. Following the opening remarks by CFMI President Antonella Mansi, there will be three 45-minute slots of presentations. The speakers are:
Angelo Figus (Spazio Ricerca Pitti Immagine Filati)
Alberto Candiani (CANDIANI Denim)
Francesca Perrone (Unicredit ESG & Start Lab Italy UniCredit)

CFMI Academy aims to serve as a bridge between Fashion Design students and the fashion industry, offering high-level training focused on industrial culture and sustainability. The goal is to complement the education provided in schools with practical operational challenges that young professionals will face in the field, thereby expanding Pitti Filati's audience to include the Fashion Education Industry.

Sustainability will be the main focus of these activities, with a special emphasis on ESG (Environmental, Social, and Governance) issues.
