

Kidswear Trends Spring/Summer 2026–27

THE CABINA

The new Area of this edition, the radar for the best in kidswear for getting ahead of emerging trends and new aesthetic languages before they become the next must-haves of the global market.

Bianca&Noè

A contemporary, experimental, and conscious Made in Italy brand, distinguished by its oversized silhouettes designed around a new idea of freedom and expression. Every collection is built on careful research into Italian and European materials, selected for their natural, organic, and certified qualities.

Dieci e Lode

An Italian brand creating collections for adults and children alike, celebrating the magic of childhood and a style meant to be shared. Its motto is BETTER TOGETHER — a tribute to those bonds so beautiful and strong they deserve to be expressed through perfectly matching looks. Because nothing says more than showing the world your complicity.

Forivor

From bed linen to blankets and pajamas, reality intertwines with fantasy, inviting children to discover wildlife during the day and watch those same creatures transform into magical beings at night. Crafted from the finest organic cotton, each product is designed to be cherished and passed down as a precious keepsake.

Inaiê

A Portuguese brand distinguished by its functional lifestyle accessories with refined design. Clean lines, sophisticated color palettes, and carefully selected materials come together in feeding accessories, small backpacks, and toys; thoughtfully designed to build an elegant universe that appeals to both parents and children.

Mini Kyomo

A French children's watch brand with a vintage, colorful, and timeless design, conceived to make learning to tell the time a pleasure. Made in Italy from recycled and shockproof materials, these watches accompany children on every adventure while doubling as a very wearable accessory to pair with any look.

Oona Kids

A premium children's knitwear brand born in Romania. Timeless pieces in extra-fine merino wool and carefully selected natural fibers. Each collection is produced in small batches, with close attention to quality, comfort, and longevity. Garments made to be worn, loved, and passed on.

Streghe in Bikini

An Italian-made beachwear brand with a limited-edition artisanal production. The summer capsule collection features matching swimsuits for girls and women, crafted in cotton and microfiber. Soft ruffles and luminous shades define a collection that celebrates spontaneity, playfulness, and femininity without excess. Solid colors take center stage, enhanced with colorful beads that add a magical and distinctive touch.

TNTRM

A brand focused entirely on girls aged 8 to 16, with all the care and attention that age group deserves. The pieces are sophisticated without being grown-up. Considered without being rigid. Cool in the truest sense, not chasing trends, but building a style. Organic fabrics, artisanal construction, and the rigor of an atelier with a decade of ethical production behind it.

SLOW LIVING

Run, dive, play: the summer wardrobe

The little ones' summer smells of freedom and unhurried days. Between afternoons by the pool, running across the grass, and walking in the shade of the trees, every moment becomes an adventure to be lived with lightness. Looks are dressed in fresh fabrics, luminous colors, and playful details: swimwear for carefree dives, hats for chasing the sun safely, comfortable sandals for exploring the world, and romantic babydoll dresses for dreaming until sunset. To complete the picture: delicate fragrances and vibrant accessories designed to accompany every small summer moment.

Piccoli Principi Swimwear

Luxury swimwear born to unite artisanal quality and sustainability. Each piece guarantees UV protection and is crafted from high-quality technical fabrics, including sustainable lycra. From two-pieces to swimsuits, the 2027 "Pearl & Tides" collection features a romantic, delicate palette ranging from vintage pink to pastel green and a soft navy blue. Exclusive prints and refined details are designed for the premium market and high-end boutiques.

Pisamonas

A Spanish brand specializing in footwear for the youngest. The SS 2027 collection arrives full of color, trend-led lines, and fresh design. The offering is all about practicality and versatility: strap ballerinas for secure comfort, leather sandals, barefoot models, first-summer shoes for babies, and styles that appeal to teens.

Teeter Totter

A premium beachwear and activewear brand for children, inspired by the colors and freedom of the Greek summer. Swimwear and sportswear combine refined design, vibrant prints, and performance fabrics with UPF50+ protection and responsible materials. Among the accessories: backpacks and ultra-light, sand-free beach towels. Designed for play, sea, and movement, the "Aegean Chromatique" collection celebrates a summer made of energy.

Senger Naturwelt

A brand founded in 1985 by Sabine and Volker Senger. For 40 years, they have been creating artisanal, sustainable toys, giving children irreplaceable companions for play. The designs are inspired by nature and animals. Turtles, mallards, elephants, and bears spark the imagination and stand the test of time. Made from the finest ecological materials and certified by the Global Organic Textile Standard (GOTS), all Senger products are manufactured in Europe with the utmost care.

Cadhan

Pajamas in soft organic cotton and delicate, dermatologically tested fragrances, designed to accompany the bedtime ritual. Each garment is designed in Portugal and produced in small quantities with local partners, with a strong focus on comfort, high quality, and sustainability. The "Sogni d'oro" collection is designed for sensitive skin. And the "Fragranza" collection was born as the scent of the early years, to build precious olfactory memories even in the very young.

Cozmo

A family business with over 70 years of experience in textile craftsmanship, a heritage passed down through three generations that lives on in every piece: timeless in style, yet uncompromising in comfort and contemporary appeal. The collections offer a complete, high-quality total look for newborns and children up to 14 years old. Pieces designed to accompany them both in everyday moments and on special occasions, with fresh garments, cheerful summer prints, striped t-shirts, and coordinated sets for the little ones.

Inaiê

A Portuguese brand distinguished by its creation of functional lifestyle accessories with refined design for families' daily lives. Clean lines, sophisticated color palettes, and carefully selected materials come together to create products that are as practical as they are aesthetically distinctive. Feeding accessories, small backpacks, and toys are thoughtfully designed to build a cohesive, elegant universe that appeals to both parents and children alike.

PITTI IMMAGINE BIMBO

Marie Raxevisky

Swimwear, beachwear, and luxury accessories designed in Athens and crafted from fine Italian fabrics and recycled materials, UPF 50+ certified, for comfort and sun protection alongside elegance, quality, and sustainability. Family, love, friendship, and loyalty are the deep values that inspire every collection. The "Beach Couture" line offers coordinated pieces for adults and children, crafted with artisanal care and attention to detail: swimwear, sarongs, and skirts for a perfect mother-daughter match.

Selini

A Greek brand born from the creativity of Eleni Balerba, who from childhood made her own costumes decorating them with shells, pebbles, and seaweed gathered on the beach. From her creative talent, exclusive creations continue to emerge that smell of the sea and faraway travels. Passionate about handmade techniques, Eleni has also chosen to involve local artisans in the creation of her pieces, which are enriched with precious embroideries and decorations.

Joyful Occasions

Summer is the season of connecting, outdoor celebrations, and garden weddings that bring family and friends together. Perfect moments to wear something special, to shine and be admired. It is when even the wardrobes of the youngest become something precious. It is not just a matter of elegance. Certain garments invite us to dream, evoking a fairytale atmosphere through refined lines and carefully crafted details, premium fabrics paired with sophisticated accessories. Luxury and comfort always go hand in hand, while keeping at heart every child's desire to experience summer with lightness and ease.

Andanines

Sandals, clogs and shoes in pastel shades, enriched with precious details such as delicate floral appliqués, perfect for the dress code of summer celebrations. Founded in Alicante in 1983, the brand designs and manufactures entirely in Spain, with a strong focus on craftsmanship and the wellbeing of little feet.

Blue Francis

Refined jewelry for children aged seven and above, crafted with artisanal expertise and designed to stand the test of time. The pieces are made from 14-karat gold, vermeil on sterling silver and pure sterling silver; materials selected for their durability, comfort and hypoallergenic properties.

Eirene

Luxury garments for special occasions, crafted from premium materials such as custom embroidered lace, fine silks and jacquards, combined with handmade embellishments and embroidery. The brand's iconic bespoke prints are further enhanced through the use of Swarovski crystals.

Etliberi

A Tokyo-based brand. Its refined Japanese design translates into iconic styles such as the Erica, Sophia, Julia and Margot dresses. The new collection features timeless silhouettes, sophisticated details and a soft, contemporary colour palette for delicate garments, perfect for weddings and special occasions.

I Natural Angel

In 2012, the founder created her first dress for her daughter's fifth birthday. Since then, the brand has designed formalwear for children that combines timeless European elegance with everyday comfort. The use of natural, delicate fabrics ensures softness and freedom of movement.

PITTI IMMAGINE BIMBO

Junona

An iconic brand dressing girls aged 3 to 16 with contemporary elegance. Dresses come to life like a dream, fabrics capture the light, and silhouettes draw inspiration from the romantic charm of grand residences. Ethereal pastel tulle skirts and delicate floral motifs add timeless appeal.

Little Creative Factory

A Portuguese brand whose collections emerge from a playful yet romantic creative universe, combining contemporary urban-inspired designs with exceptional comfort. With a strong commitment to sustainability across the entire supply chain, the brand produces in Europe using 95% recycled fibers and organic cotton.

Patachou

A Portuguese brand specializing in clothing and accessories for babies, children and teenagers from 0 months to 14 years. Its collections, luxurious yet accessible, stem from the creativity of two fashion-loving entrepreneurs who envisioned a universe dedicated to childhood, filled with classic and playful creations.

Petite Maison Kids

Founded by Katerina Azarova, the brand creates dresses for special occasions, tailored suits and baby rompers where timeless elegance meets contemporary style. The Amelia & Violet collection brings together the brand's two souls: one soft, romantic and playful, the other more contemporary, with distinctive textures and elegant volumes.

Yo Baby

A Jaipur-based brand focused on slow fashion, consciously designed with meticulous attention to detail. Built around high-quality materials, with particular emphasis on finishing touches and craftsmanship, the collections feature dresses, suits, tops, and skirts with a distinctive attitude.

Urban Playground

A spontaneous, versatile, and contemporary sensibility accompanies the youngest through school, play, and free time. A dynamic universe where style, comfort, and aesthetic research coexist in perfect balance. Casual pieces with real character, street-inspired details, and accessories designed for freedom of movement come together in an offering that feels both current and genuinely wearable. From super comfortable footwear to accessories with a distinctive edge and the most iconic denim — a selection designed to accompany children through every moment of the day, with freedom, creativity, and urban spirit.

Falcotto

Iconic footwear designed for the first steps of children from nine months to three years old. Crafted from quality materials and designed with safety at the core, the new collection of colorful sneakers and sandals gives little feet both protection and the freedom to move.

Gallucci

From the heart of the Marche footwear district, a long tradition of artisanal mastery and genuine attention to foot wellbeing. Drawing on the brand's historical archives, the company continues to carry forward the traditional Goodyear Welted technique, perfectly suited to the needs of little, growing feet.

Mini Kyomo

A French children's watch brand with a vintage, colorful, and timeless design, conceived to make learning to tell the time a pleasure. Made in Italy from recycled and shockproof materials, these watches accompany children on every adventure while doubling as a very wearable accessory to pair with any look.

PITTI IMMAGINE BIMBO

Ole

Backpacks, foldable bags, gift wrap, ribbons, and stickers; all covered in graphic motifs and playful illustrations with unexpected colour combinations. Perfect accessories to brighten up back to school and play with shapes and colours according to the mood, sparking imagination and creativity.

Roy Rogers

Denim is naturally at the heart of the collection, along with everything that evokes the world of this iconic brand, which has grown while staying true to its identity. Alongside the core basics, a wide range of ready-to-wear pieces that celebrate above all the historic washes that have become a true signature of the brand.

Snug

A Portuguese brand built on sustainability and comfort. Collections are developed using organic raw materials, recycled fibers, natural dyes, and zero plastic. The new Daydreams and Ice Cream collection draws on the mood of summer: perfect for dreaming and eating ice cream.

Sticky Lemon

Extravagant, colorful, and bold: a world of backpacks, irresistible pieces, and playful accessories. The new Once Upon a Lemon Tree collection captures all the wonder of nature. The grass that tickles your feet, the buzzing bumblebees, the ladybug. An invitation to explore.

The new society

Founded in 2019 by Estefanía Grandío, the brand celebrates the authenticity of everyday dressing through timeless design and conscious production. With a deep respect for natural fabrics and artisanal tradition, these are garments made to accompany real life and last well beyond the turn of the seasons.

Made to be

A style that transcends definitions and boundaries, placing the individual and their personality at the center; the desire for freedom and the drive toward authenticity. A genderless, ageless approach that accompanies growth through the naturalness of versatile pieces and accessories that emphasize the joy of growing up rather than categories. Palettes, lines, and materials weave timeless atmospheres with comfort and essential aesthetics, for a contemporary wardrobe designed to be shared and passed down, following the spontaneous rhythm of childhood.

2 Stories Kids

A brand that brings together the simplicity of Scandinavian design and the warmth of Eastern craftsmanship, creating a unique world of handmade décor for children. Clean lines, delicate colors, and tactile materials crafted through traditional artisanal techniques give life to timeless pieces that speak to both design-loving parents and children with big imaginations.

Bobo Choses

The brand that revolutionized kidswear by capturing the magical language of children and their values: creativity, passion, honesty, and a sense of humor. Since 2008, every collection is born with its own story and characters, with a particular love for hand-illustrated prints and a careful selection of colors and fabrics.

Gray Label

Founded in 2011 by Emily Gray, this brand creates essential, soft, and minimalist pieces for children aged 0 to 12. Designed to be lived in. Every piece is made with intention and produced ethically in Portugal and Turkey using GOTS-certified organic cotton.

Halcyon Nights

Essential pieces for newborns and children, packaged in recycled paper.

PITTI IMMAGINE BIMBO

The brand was born from the imagination of Kym and her two daughters. Each collection is developed in collaboration with Australian and international artists: from UFO and dinosaur prints to multicolored mountain landscapes.

Laranjinha

A historic Portuguese brand creating clothing for ages 0–10 since 1981. Its collections have spanned generations, combining high quality and maximum comfort, distinctive design, and the use of soft, natural materials. Today the brand is focused on reducing its ecological footprint and supporting local producers.

Maglificio Verona

Artisans since 1975, from whose hands unique pieces are born; far removed from the rules of fashion and the passage of time. Children's knitwear designed by imagining everyday moments, handcrafted with natural yarns in respect of nature and skin. Every finish is meticulously checked, without compromise.

Mini Rodini

Founded by Cassandra Rhodin in 2006, the brand is a celebration of imagination. Its signature prints are hand-drawn or painted by Cassandra herself and draw inspiration from wildlife, art, and pop culture, all infused with a playful sense of humor. Cat mermaids, mystical moons, elegant dogs, flowers with faces, and unicorn clouds slurping noodles create a universe where anything is possible.

Per te

Made in Italy tailoring for babies and children. Refined garments crafted in knitwear, cotton, and poplin, defined by a classic and elegant aesthetic. Silhouettes and palettes preserve the authentic spirit of childhood, filled with dreamlike imagery and thoughtful details that make all the difference.

Risu Risu

French elegance, organic purity, and responsibility for this maison founded in Paris by Camille, a mother in search of beautiful, gentle, and truly safe clothing. Refined garments in certified organic jersey, with carefully traced materials, designed to respect the most sensitive skin.

Silly Silas

A Swedish brand celebrated for its iconic suspender tights, lovingly reinterpreted each season. With deep respect for tradition and craftsmanship, the brand collaborates with small workshops and artisans across the European Union, ensuring that skills and expertise passed down over decades continue to thrive rather than disappear.

Wooly organic

Toys and clothing for children aged 0 to 10: from soft plush toys, comfort blankets, and rattles to wraps and garments in organic cotton, merino wool, wool-silk, eucalyptus fiber, and 100% organic velvet. Everything is made in Liepāja, Latvia, ensuring ethical production practices and a commitment to the principles of slow fashion.

Elle and Rapha

Antwerp-based brand offering coordinated collections for the whole f(am)ily, from newborns and children of all ages to the adults at home. The collections range from sophisticated beachwear to practical activewear, all complemented by accessories that make every look unique and special.

Pequeño Tocon

Born in Barcelona, Pequeño Tocon designs contemporary clothing for babies and toddlers aged 0 to 4. We are proudly 100% made in Spain, combining careful craftsmanship with natural, eco-friendly materials. Our collections bring together modern design and sustainable comfort for your little ones.

PITTI IMMAGINE BIMBO

THE CABINA

The radar for the best in kidswear for getting ahead of emerging trends and new aesthetic languages before they become the next must-haves of the global market.

Bianca&Noè

A contemporary, experimental, and conscious Made in Italy brand, distinguished by its oversized silhouettes designed around a new idea of freedom and expression. Every collection is built on careful research into Italian and European materials, selected for their natural, organic, and certified qualities.

Dieci e Lode

An Italian brand creating collections for adults and children alike, celebrating the magic of childhood and a style meant to be shared. Its motto is BETTER TOGETHER — a tribute to those bonds so beautiful and strong they deserve to be expressed through perfectly matching looks. Because nothing says more than showing the world your complicity.

Forivor

From bed linen to blankets and pajamas, reality intertwines with fantasy, inviting children to discover wildlife during the day and watch those same creatures transform into magical beings at night. Crafted from the finest organic cotton, each product is designed to be cherished and passed down as a precious keepsake.

Inaiê

A Portuguese brand distinguished by its functional lifestyle accessories with refined design. Clean lines, sophisticated color palettes, and carefully selected materials come together in feeding accessories, small backpacks, and toys; thoughtfully designed to build an elegant universe that appeals to both parents and children.

Mini Kyomo

A French children's watch brand with a vintage, colorful, and timeless design, conceived to make learning to tell the time a pleasure. Made in Italy from recycled and shockproof materials, these watches accompany children on every adventure while doubling as a very wearable accessory to pair with any look.

Oona Kids

A premium children's knitwear brand born in Romania. Timeless pieces in extra-fine merino wool and carefully selected natural fibers. Each collection is produced in small batches, with close attention to quality, comfort, and longevity. Garments made to be worn, loved, and passed on.

Streghe in Bikini

An Italian-made beachwear brand with a limited-edition artisanal production. The summer capsule collection features matching swimsuits for girls and women, crafted in cotton and microfiber. Soft ruffles and luminous shades define a collection that celebrates spontaneity, playfulness, and femininity without excess. Solid colors take center stage, enhanced with colorful beads that add a magical and distinctive touch.

TNTRM

A brand focused entirely on girls aged 8 to 16, with all the care and attention that age group deserves. The pieces are sophisticated without being grown-up. Considered without being rigid. Cool in the truest sense, not chasing trends, but building a style. Organic fabrics, artisanal construction, and the rigor of an atelier with a decade of ethical production behind it.